Alex Schoephoerster and Shannon Wiger Earn Minnesota Lawyer Honors

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce Alex Schoephoerster and Shannon Wiger have been named to Minnesota Lawyer's 2025 Up & Coming Attorneys and Unsung Legal Heroes lists, respectively.

As the publication states, these distinctions celebrate "the standout new attorneys who are already making waves in the legal field, as well as the indispensable legal professionals whose behind-the-scenes work makes success possible." All honorees were formally recognized at the September 12 awards luncheon at The Mosaic in Minneapolis.

At the firm, Alex and Shannon are valued members of the Spencer Fane St. Cloud office. Alex advises clients across a broad spectrum of business law and transactional matters, including governance and buy-sell agreements, capital fundraising, contracts and commercial transactions, estate planning and business succession planning, real estate, mergers and acquisitions, bitcoin and blockchain matters, and general business practices. As Office & Client Services Administrator, Shannon provides essential support to St. Cloud attorneys and staff by enhancing professional paths and processes to grow opportunities and expand client reach.
