SpencerFane®

Jessie Merrigan and Jim Price Earn Fourth MLM POWER List Recognition

For the fourth consecutive year, attorneys Jessica Merrigan and Jim Price were named to the annual Missouri Lawyers Media (MLM) POWER List: Environmental and Energy Law.

MLM determines POWER List honorees from a database of verdicts and settlements as well as the opinions of attorneys and other business thought leaders. Recognized among 30 attorneys the publication calls the "most powerful" in Missouri environmental law, Jessie and Jim reaffirm their reputations for industry leadership, client success, and community impact.

The publication highlighted Jessie's passion for her interdisciplinary legal practice that prioritizes collaboration and advancing stakeholder interests, with Jessie noting the satisfaction of witnessing the lasting community benefits of her work. Her feature also highlighted her roles as Fellow and President-Elect of the American College of Environmental Lawyers, a renowned industry organization.

Jim's profile underscored his reputation as a leader at Spencer Fane and the broader legal and civic environmental sector, including as lead counsel for diverse environmental matters and as inaugural chair of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association's Environmental Law Committee.

Read Jessie and Jim's full 2025 profiles. Please note, a subscription is required.