New Firm Partner Hans Riede Discusses Joining Spencer Fane in Law360

Spencer Fane attorney Hans Riede discussed his recent move to the firm in the article Spencer Fane Adds Quarles & Brady Labor Practice Pro, published by Law360.

In the Law360 feature, Hans said he had been following the firm's growth and decided the move was ideal based on the firm's expanding practice areas and national office network. "Their expansion in New York is directly beneficial," he said. "Their presence in Texas helps my client needs. Their practice areas … and their white-collar in particular, and government contracting expansion, all that factored into my decision."

Washington, D.C., Office Managing Partner Bill Powers' comments in a firm statement were also highlighted. He emphasized the firm's strategic growth plans and said, "Hans brings an impressive track record of success as a litigator as well as a keen ability to determine when disputes are best resolved out of the courtroom, resulting in a balanced skill set and rationale that will undoubtedly support our clients' needs in D.C., Virginia, and nationwide."

At Spencer Fane, Hans counsels corporations as well as a diverse assortment of industry leaders and executives on a wide variety of employment disputes, providing detailed analyses of all potential risks and opportunities should clients choose to pursue litigation, including high-stakes bet-the-company litigation, or alternative dispute resolution.
