Small Business Bootcamp and Resource Collective

The Ultimate Guide to Starting Your Business

Spencer Fane attorneys Andy Anderson, Ryan Osugi, and Mike Patterson recently presented at the Arizona Commerce Authority Small Business Bootcamp and Resource Collective event.

Andy, Ryan, and Mike discussed best practices for starting a business, including do's and don'ts, entity selection/structure, and operating agreements. They also emphasized the importance of developing a deep understanding of business objectives to pave the way for growth and success.

At Spencer Fane, Andy helps clients in corporate transactions, such as debt and equity financings and mergers and acquisitions, allowing them to execute with purpose and speed. Ryan assists with the wide variety of corporate transactions companies may encounter, including mergers and acquisitions, reorganizations, real property transactions, and equity financing.

Mike's practice focuses on helping businesses navigate corporate, compliance, and securities matters. He assists domestic and international mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, strategic alliances, equity and debt offerings, foreign direct investment, distribution, agency and licensing matters, and market entry strategies.
