BIOGRAPHY

Adlai is a member of the firm's Real Estate group. His transaction practice focuses on real estate development, finance and construction, including the use of development incentives and tax credit financing for commercial real estate developments and affordable housing projects. Adlai's practice also includes general business counseling for both regional and national clients.

Adlai is a graduate of The University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he served as the Assistant Managing Editor of the Oklahoma Law Review. He received his bachelor's degree in economics from Missouri State University, and his master's degree in economics from The University of Maine.

Prior to joining Spencer Fane, Adlai served as an associate at a regional law firm where he handled a variety of business and commercial legal matters, including real estate and general civil litigation.
