BIOGRAPHY

Brent Erwood represents banks, commercial finance companies, factors, asset-based lenders and borrowers in their most complicated commercial lending matters involving structuring, documenting, negotiating and monitoring credit relationships. He has a diverse range of practice including unsecured loans, middle market lending, and agented credits with multiple credit facilities, multiple interest rate options and collateral. His industry experience includes manufacturing, distribution and service businesses.

Brent also works with lenders and borrowers from proposal and commitment letter development through loan closing, and afterward on subsequent loan administration matters. In addition, Brent spends significant time counseling clients regarding all aspects of Article IX of the Uniform Commercial Code, including the creation, attachment, perfection and priority of security interests.
