BIOGRAPHY

Brett Bogan helps leaders in the healthcare industry with all types of business transactions, including those for corporations, limited liability companies and partnerships. With more than 20 years of experience, Brett regularly counsels clients with business planning, capital structures, specialized stockholders agreements, joint venture agreements and the protection and licensing of technology.

Brett has represented clients through mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, bank financings and public and private stock offerings. He has experience with U.S. securities law and advises companies on matters relating to general corporate law, reporting and corporate governance. He facilitated the largest private hospital acquisitions in the greater Kansas City area in 2013 and 2015.

In addition, Brett helps clients with matters involving credit agreements, real estate, corporate finance and strategic alliances. Brett is a member of the Overland Park Regional Medical Center Board of Trustees and also serves on multiple non-profit boards in the Kansas City area.
