BIOGRAPHY

Cynthia Rowe co-leads the firm's eDiscovery and Data Management practice. She serves as eDiscovery Counsel on litigation and investigation matters, and manages all aspects of the eDiscovery process to reduce legal spend while enhancing client outcomes. She also offers advisory services to help clients unify their policies, information technology solutions, and business practices.

In addition, Cynthia advises clients on strategic initiatives, including executive leadership and organizational change, continuity planning, policy development, and risk management.

Cynthia has managed all aspects of eDiscovery across multiple complex litigation and investigation matters. She has been involved in developing and evolving comprehensive litigation readiness plans, corporate policies and compliance efforts, and data privacy initiatives. Her consulting experience includes law department strategy and operations, legal technology selection and implementation, outside counsel and vendor management, and knowledge and change management.

Cynthia believes in an interdisciplinary and collaborative approach to problem solving and enjoys synthesizing technology and innovative process design to achieve operational efficiencies while controlling risks and enhancing financial objectives.
