BIOGRAPHY

A distinguished member of Nevada's legal community and second-generation lawyer in the state, John Mowbray concentrates his practice on commercial litigation as well as real estate and ethics and professional responsibility.

During his 40-year career, John has assisted clients with issues facing businesses of all sizes. He has helped business owners adeptly navigate everything from contracts and lawsuits to personal estates and trusts.

John is the Managing Partner of the Spencer Fane Las Vegas office, and is a distinguished member of Nevada's legal community. As a past president of the State Bar of Nevada and Clark County Bar Association, he is well-regarded throughout the region for his knowledge of law and high level of dedication to client service.

John draws on this experience and heavy involvement in the professional legal community to better inform his peers and colleagues of best legal practices. Clients value John's legal knowledge, ability to assimilate complex facts and commitment to help them achieve desired results.
