BIOGRAPHY

Kelly Campbell is a trial lawyer who helps her clients make the best decision to reach their goals. She goes to trial when her clients want to be vindicated in a court of law. She resolves their cases when her clients decide for business reasons that it's the right decision. She has defended her clients against wrongful death claims, multiple serious personal injury claims, toxic torts, and products liability claims. She has defended her clients against executive compensation claims, all types of discrimination and retaliation claims, and breach of contract claims. She prepares her clients to comply with regulatory requirements and assist with proactive programs and policies to better serve their business goals. She works with her clients to understand their legal needs and resolve their issues.

Kelly has significant experience in defending manufacturers on products liability claims. She assists her clients with forensic investigations, the results of which often vindicate her clients before a lawsuit is even contemplated. She aggressively defends against claims and lawsuits to reduce her clients' exposure to risk. She assists with programs and policies to prevent product claims and supervise recalls or retrofits when necessary.

Kelly also pursues claims on behalf of financial institutions and asserting their creditor's rights, through courts, foreclosures, and bankruptcy. She has recovered millions of dollars on behalf of her clients. She has also defended bank officers and directors in multiple cases involving claims of breach of fiduciary duty, fraudulent misrepresentation, tortious interference with a business expectancy, and violations of banking regulations. She has succeeded in obtaining dismissals of multiple counterclaims.

Kelly also defends companies against employment discrimination and retaliation claims. She has successfully defended multiple employers against claims of sexual harassment, discrimination on the basis of sex, race, national origin, religion, and disability and earned dismissals of claims by motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment. She has also defended FLSA collective actions involving multiple regions, thousands of opt-in plaintiffs, and individual claims of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.
