Frank Neuner named to National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals

FEBRUARY 5, 2019 | NEWS

Spencer Fane attorney Frank Neuner was recently named to the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. NADN is an invitation-only professional association, whose membership consists of professional mediators and arbitrators distinguished by their hands-on experience in the field of civil and commercial conflict resolution, and by their commitment to the practice of alternative dispute resolution. All Academy members have been found to meet stringent practice criteria and are among the most in-demand neutrals in their respective states, as nominated by both peers and litigation firms.
