SpencerFane®

2022: From the Great Resignation to Quiet Quitting, Plus Other Employment Law and Employee Benefits Developments

November 9, 2022
1:30 pm CT - 3:00 pm CT

Spencer Fane attorneys Helen Holden and Julia Vander Weele will present an upcoming webinar on the major developments of 2022 that employers should know about, from both an employment law and employee benefits perspective.

This 90-minute webinar will cover major developments, including:

- Effectively responding to cultural developments in the workplace, such as Quiet Quitting and the Great Resignation.
- The increasing importance of state and local laws for employers.
- The impact of the decision in Dobbs v. Jackson's Women's Health Centers on employee benefits.
- The impact of 2022 employee benefit legislation on health plans.

Date/Time: Wednesday, November 9, 2022 | 1:30-3:00 p.m. CST
Platform: Virtual
Cost: Free

It is the firm's fourth and final WorkSmarts seminar of the year following seminars in February, May, and September.

View Presentation