SpencerFane®

4th Annual Southern Nevada Women's Leadership Summit

Spencer Fane attorney Ayesha Mehdi recently served as the keynote speaker at the 4th Annual Southern Nevada Women's Leadership Summit.

Hosted by the Nevada Chapters of the American College of Healthcare Executives, Healthcare Financial Management Association, and Nevada Medical Group Management Association, this event was an opportunity to network and gain insight from leaders in the health care field.

Ayesha focused her presentation on challenges women leaders face in the industry and shared her experiences and empowerment techniques that have helped her throughout her career.

To learn more, please click here.