Advantage CLE: Not Your Father's Fraud: DOJ's New Fraud Enforcement Rules, Priorities, and Guidelines

December 1, 2026
12:00 pm CT - 1:00 pm CT

In the past 12 months, the U.S. Department of Justice has rewritten the rules for fraud investigations and prosecutions, from industry targets, voluntary disclosure protocols, and charging considerations. General counsel, compliance and risk officers, and decision-makers should understand where DOJ is looking for targets, what the priorities are, and how an organization can plan for and respond to government scrutiny.
