

SpencerFane®

Al Hiller Joins Holocaust Museum Houston Board of Advisors

Spencer Fane attorney Al Hiller was recently named to the Board of Advisors for Holocaust Museum Houston (HMH).

In this new leadership role, Al will assist HMH in educating people about the Holocaust and utilizing the lessons of history to create a more humane society by promoting responsible individual behavior, cultivating civility, and pursuing social justice. This will expand the work he already performs as a volunteer docent for the museum.

At Spencer Fane, Al uses over 40 years of experience to assist clients with their commercial real estate law needs. He represents residential lot developers, office/service center and mini-storage operators, multifamily developers, and operators and developers of housing for homeless veterans.

Recently, Al hosted a Spencer Fane Night at the Museum, a client event and HMH tour experience.

Learn more about HMH here.