SpencerFane®

Allen Voor Vart Earns Kansas City CFO of the Year Honor

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce firm Chief Financial Officer Allen Voor Vart as one of the Kansas City Business Journal (KCBJ)'s 2026 CFO of the Year honorees.

This honor recognizes 16 CFOs who have generated profound, measurable results for organizations across the Kansas City metropolitan area. As the only 2026 law firm honoree, Allen has earned this distinction through a growth-oriented mindset and proven track record of building enterprise value that have helped Spencer Fane reach new heights.

Allen and his fellow honorees will be formally celebrated at the KCBJ's July 30 awards event at Loews Kansas City Hotel and featured in a July 31 edition of the publication.

At the firm, Allen leads the firm's financial strategy and oversees core financial activities. He works closely with other firm leadership to support profitability, strengthen financial controls, streamline processes and procedures, and guide strategic decision‑making and long‑term growth initiatives.

Read the full KCBJ CFO of the Year list here. Please note, a subscription may be required.