

SpencerFane®

Amy Mistler Inducted Into Midwest Commercial Real Estate Hall of Fame

Spencer Fane attorney Amy Mistler was inducted into the Midwest Real Estate News's Commercial Real Estate Hall of Fame. Amy was selected for the Hall of Fame in 2020 out of over 300 nominations.

The Hall of Fame recognizes the top real estate professionals in the Midwest who consistently demonstrate talent, dedication, hard work, and commitment. This class of attorneys thrived during one of the toughest real estate markets, and continued as leaders in the real estate industry.

Amy has been providing legal services for all types of real estate transactions to developers, investors, lenders, and borrowers for over 20 years. At Spencer Fane, she serves as managing partner for the St. Louis office. Her success comes from her profound knowledge, strong work ethic, and desire for continuous education.

"I thoroughly enjoy participating in real estate projects on behalf of our clients and witnessing the tangible economic benefits those projects have on the community and larger metropolitan area in which they are located," Amy explained in the Midwest Real Estate News feature.

To learn more about the honor, please click here.