Anabel Quintana Named Paralegal Member of the Year

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce Anabel Quintana as the recipient of the 2025 Maricopa County Bar Association (MCBA) Paralegal Member of the Year.

Anabel – who serves as Director of the MCBA Paralegal Division – received this honor at the organization's Paralegal Powerhouse Conference on October 24. The award reflects her industrywide reputation as a leader in her sphere who continues harnessing and growing her skillset for the benefit of others.

"Anabel's dedication to our clients, her exceptional attention to detail, and her commitment to excellence set her apart in our field," said Phoenix attorney Norma Izzo. "Her work embodies the values our practice holds most important – professionalism and compassion for the families we serve."

At the firm, Anabel is an integral part of the Spencer Fane Phoenix office. As a paralegal, she supports both attorneys and clients through a variety of tasks such as research, administrative support, and document and case preparation to enhance a smooth legal process for all.
