

Andrea Perry Earns Nashville Black Chamber of Commerce Connector & Achiever Honor

Spencer Fane is proud to announce attorney Andrea Perry was honored with the Nashville Black Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) Connector & Achiever Award at the organization's 25th Year Gala and Awards Celebration on November 11.

"As a strong believer in the power of connectivity and collaboration, I am humbled to be acknowledged for my efforts in fostering meaningful relationships," Andrea shared. "This recognition fuels my passion and inspires me to continue pushing boundaries and striving for excellence in all I do."

The NBCC serves as the preeminent resource for African American businesses in the Nashville area to connect, learn, grow, and prosper. The organization aims to empower and encourage prosperity for Nashville's African American businesses by forging worthwhile partnerships that lead to economic advancement; developing businesses that are successful, sustainable, and scalable; providing economic opportunities that create jobs and wealth; and leading on policy initiatives that cultivate an economic environment for businesses to thrive.

At Spencer Fane, Andrea co-leads the firm's Banking and Financial Services Practice Group. She concentrates her practice in the areas of real estate, commercial lending, general corporate, and tax-exempt organizations. Andrea is also deeply involved in her Nashville community and has held leadership positions in organizations such as Cable, the Nashville Children's Theatre, the Napier-Looby Bar Foundation, and more.
