

Anne Sumpter Arney Speaks at Tennessee Psychiatric Association Conference

Spencer Fane attorney Anne Sumpter Arney was a featured speaker at the 2024 Tennessee Psychiatric Association (TPA) Annual Meeting, which was held March 15-17 in Spencer, Tennessee.

The event was the TPA's first live conference since the COVID-19 pandemic and served as an excellent networking and educational opportunity for health care professionals. Anne spoke on the Developments in Practice Management panel alongside Cromwell Medical's Chuck Cochran and Lauren Vedros. The session discussed common issues facing psychiatrists and their practices.

At Spencer Fane, Anne uses more than 30 years of experience working with many Nashville health care companies and medical professionals. She advises her health care clients on matters related to business law and transactional issues, as well as assisting them in navigating ever-changing health care laws and regulations.
