

SpencerFane®

Ayesha Mehdi and John Mowbray Named 2021 Leading Lawyers

Spencer Fane attorneys Ayesha Mehdi and John Mowbray were recognized by Real Vegas magazine as 2021 Leading Lawyers of Las Vegas.

Identifying attorneys that are highly recommended in both their practice and through their community relations, Ayesha and John were selected by their peers and readers of Real Vegas for “the way they go above and beyond to fearlessly advocate for their clients.”

At Spencer Fane, Ayesha counsels health care clients on regulatory compliance and mergers and acquisitions. She is involved in the community, focusing many of her efforts on improving diversity, equity, and inclusion in the legal field, including regularly speaking at events.

John focuses his practice on commercial litigation as well as real estate and ethics and professional responsibility. John is the Managing Partner of the Spencer Fane Las Vegas office, and is a distinguished member of Nevada’s legal community. John draws on this experience and heavy involvement in the professional legal community to better inform his peers and colleagues of best legal practices.

To learn more, please click here.