

Ayesha Mehdi Returns as Guest Speaker to University of Nevada, Reno

Spencer Fane attorney Ayesha Mehdi returned to the University of Nevada, Reno on October 18 to present a seminar to the school's nurse practitioner students after leading the same session last year.

During the seminar, Let's Practice! A Brief Overview of Practice Options for APRNs, Ayesha guided attendees through the legal considerations of owning a practice as an advanced practice registered nurse (APRN). Topics included employment and professional service agreements, applicable laws, important contract clauses, and a checklist for opening shop.

At Spencer Fane, Ayesha is a respected health care attorney based in Las Vegas with extensive experience in regulatory, transactional, and litigation matters. As a partner with the firm's health care group, she advises health care professionals and closely held businesses on corporate, regulatory, and licensure issues, including mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures.