

SpencerFane®

Ayesha Mehdi Selected for Emerge Nevada Class of 2022

Spencer Fane attorney Ayesha Mehdi was recently selected for the Emerge Nevada Class of 2022, which is made up of women who lead and inspire others and work toward making a positive impact in Nevada.

Participants were chosen for their leadership goals and aspirations through a rigorous process that included an in-person interview with the selection committee.

Ayesha is involved in numerous professional organizations, including the American Bar Association (ABA), American Health Law Association, State Bar of Nevada, and the Clark County Bar Association. She is Vice-Chair of the Coordinating Committee on Diversity and Chair of the Healthcare Fraud and Compliance Interest Group at the ABA. Ayesha devotes a significant amount of time to pro bono work and is passionate about seeking justice for children through collaboration with the Children's Attorney Project.

To learn more, please click here.