

SpencerFane®

Ayesha Mehdi to Join Women's Leadership Panel at HLA NV Event

Spencer Fane attorney Ayesha Mehdi will speak at the Healthcare Leaders Association of Nevada (HLA NV)'s Women's Leadership Breakfast on April 24 in Las Vegas.

This gathering will feature an engaging morning of breakfast, networking, and inspiring discussion based on the theme "Our Voice, Our Strength: Leading with Influence." In addition to keynote presentations from Las Vegas Mayor Shelley Berkley and Jackie Van Blaricum, (HCA Division President Far West), the event will include the panel, Keeping Your Voice in Today's Climate: A Communication Panel for Women Leaders. Ayesha and her fellow panelists will explore how women can lead with influence, mentor others, and maintain a strong, authentic voice in today's dynamic workplace.

At the firm, Ayesha is a respected health care attorney based in Las Vegas with extensive experience in regulatory, transactional, and litigation matters. As a partner with the firm's health care group, she advises health care professionals and closely held businesses on corporate, regulatory, and licensure issues, including mergers, acquisitions, and joint ventures.

Register for the breakfast here.