SpencerFane®

Back-to-School Hot Topics

Spencer Fane attorneys Stephanie Lovett-Bowman and Madison Perry will present an upcoming webinar on the hottest topics in education law, just in time for back to school.

The new K-12 school year is underway and COVID-19 is finally out of center stage. School officials deserve to take a breath, and it's a good time to dive back in to the other important legal issues facing schools.

This 60-minute webinar will include:

- Tips for preparing for the upcoming revisions to the Title IX regulations.
- Predictions for ED's revisions to the Section 504 regulations.
- The legal framework applicable to patron efforts to ban books in libraries.
- Court developments relating to challenges to school policies based on religious freedom.

Date/Time: Wednesday, October 19, 2022 | noon-1 p.m. CT
Platform: Virtual
Cost: Free

To register, please click here.