Camber Jones Named to Lost & Found Grief Center Executive Board

Spencer Fane attorney Camber Jones has been elected to the 2026 Executive Board for Lost & Found Grief Center, a nonprofit that serves grieving families across southwest Missouri. Camber has been a general member of the organization's Board of Directors since 2023.

Since 2000, Lost & Found Grief Center has worked diligently to improve lives by providing help, hope, and healing through comprehensive grief support services that include research-based programs facilitated by qualified professionals. Under Lost & Found's forward-moving model, each child, family, young adult, and adult receives personalized services such as therapeutic grief support groups and workshops at no cost. Camber continues her work with Lost & Found as Executive Board Secretary to help advance the organization's mission.

As a member of the Spencer Fane Banking and Financial Service team, Camber harnesses experience representing creditors, debtors, and trustees in various insolvency matters, including bankruptcies, receiverships, and other out-of-court restructurings and enforcement actions. She has represented clients in cases under Chapters 11, 12, 13, and 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, and her work involves all aspects of bankruptcy representation, including initiating and defending adversary proceedings, investigating and conducting large-scale claims reconciliations, negotiating settlements, and negotiating, drafting, and reviewing commercial contracts. Earlier this year, Camber's exemplary client service and commitment to community leadership earned her Most Influential Women recognition from the Springfield Business Journal.
