

Cody Faulk Provides Utilities Update at UT Law CLE Land Use Conference

Spencer Fane attorney Cody Faulk presented at the 27th Annual Land Use Conference, a UT Law CLE event, on April 19 in Austin.

His presentation, General Utilities Updates in Land Use, discussed relevant changes in legislation, policy, and regulation of utilities in Texas. The session also explored how utility regulation affects the use and development of land throughout the state.

The Land Use Conference offers high-level, detailed coverage of the key issues, strategies, challenges, tools, and opportunities facing municipalities, counties, and developers. The event offers solutions and insights from industry thought leaders such as developers' attorneys, land use planners, local government attorneys, engineers, and state and local regulators.

At Spencer Fane, Cody represents investor and municipally owned utility clients in both routine and complicated administrative, transactional, operational, and regulatory issues, helping them capitalize on financial benefits in operations while avoiding potential crises. He specifically focuses on regulations and enforcement.