Courtney Lutz Creal Profiled as The Daily Report and Law.com 2024 On the Rise

Spencer Fane attorney Courtney Lutz Creal was spotlighted in a special feature of ALM's The Daily Report in recognition of her On the Rise honor. She is one of two firm attorneys to earn a 2024 Southeastern Legal Award.

Courtney is among the On the Rise honorees, which recognizes those under age 40 who are innovators, develop unique practice niches, amass robust books of business, demonstrate strong leadership qualities, show expertise in litigation or transactional work, and commit themselves to pro bono charitable and professional volunteer work.

Her award profile gives this description of Courtney: "As a community-driven leader, Courtney spearheads the growth and visibility of an often overlooked and difficult area of law, specifically helping Spencer Fane expand and enhance offerings related to Family Law in the Nashville market through the establishment of a niche part of her private practice. She has shown a remarkable ability to understand her clients' unique circumstances and advocates for them with compassion and understanding for the incredibly personal nature of family law matters."

The Southeastern Legal Awards honor attorneys who excel in their profession and "have left an indelible mark on the legal community in the southeast and beyond through their unwavering dedication to the profession."

In her practice, Courtney successfully manages and resolves her clients' most critical litigation matters across a wide variety of practice areas, focusing on highly contested divorces and custody actions.
