

SpencerFane®

Daniel Chung Organizes Career Panel and Networking Event for KABANC Mentorship Program

Spencer Fane was pleased to sponsor an in-house panel for the Korean American Bar Association of Northern California (KABANC) Mentorship Program on October 16 in San Francisco. Attorney Daniel Chung helped organize the event with funding assistance from Catherine Schlomann Robertson, Helene Simvoulakis-Panos, and Stephen Makino.

Co-sponsored by the Filipino Bar Association of North California, the event featured four in-house attorneys who practice in the Bay Area. Dozens of local law students and attorneys enjoyed panelists' career insights and enjoyed post-panel networking activities. As co-chair of the KABANC Mentorship Program, Daniel continues to organize these events to foster professional development for burgeoning legal professionals in his community. Recently, he organized a firm-sponsored kickoff event for the program.

At Spencer Fane, Daniel is an experienced trial attorney who helps clients through all stages of litigation. A former criminal prosecutor in New York City and Silicon Valley, he adeptly navigates high-stakes investigations, cases, motions, hearings, and trials. He is also an active, dedicated member of his local community who holds leadership roles not just in KABANC but also in the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Silicon Valley.