

Daniel Hwang Volunteers at KABA Chicago Event for Law Students

Spencer Fane attorney Daniel Hwang volunteered his insights at the Korean American Bar Association (KABA) of Chicago's January 24 Mock Interview event. Daniel is an officer for KABA Chicago.

Hosted for the benefit of local law students, the event saw several established attorneys lend their knowledge and experience. Students appreciated the opportunity to sharpen their interview proficiency for their future careers. The event also served as an excellent example of KABA Chicago's commitment to serving its members and community through its educational and professional offerings.

At the firm, Daniel is an IP counselor providing guidance throughout the life cycle of intellectual property rights – from early-stage strategy through dispute readiness, risk management, litigation, and enforcement. He advises clients on how to develop, secure, and protect core IP, drawing on broad subject-matter exposure and work experience.
