David E. Waters Authors Local Government Law Chapter of Kansas Annual Survey of Law

Spencer Fane attorney David E. Waters served as a co-author of the 2024 edition of the Kansas Annual Survey of Law, which was recently published by the Kansas Bar Association.

Each chapter, like the Local Government Law one authored by David, includes case law, statute, and regulation updates.

At Spencer Fane, David helps a diverse network of clients in the governmental, business, health care, and hospitality industries successfully handle the full range of legal needs related to successful real estate transactions, ensuring projects stay on time and on budget. He also currently serves as the Overland Park Office Managing Partner.

David's municipal and public law work extends to local cities and school districts, and he counsels these clients with respect to governmental authority and procedures, economic development, legislative policy, and administrative enforcement. Uniquely, he also serves as an elected official and is currently the mayor of Westwood, Kansas, in the Kansas City metro area. He is a member of the board of directors for the City Attorneys Association of Kansas and is President of the Kansas Mayors Association.
