David E. Waters Named Fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Spencer Fane attorney David E. Waters was recently selected to the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL) Fellows Class of 2023. David is one of only 30 attorneys nationwide and the sole electee in Kansas to attain this honor this year.

ACREL is the select national association of preeminent commercial real estate lawyers focused on service to clients, colleagues, and the profession. Admission is invitation-only after a rigorous nomination and screening process. As a Fellow, David has been acknowledged among ACREL's "distinguished, nationally known lawyers … for [his] outstanding legal ability, experience, and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law."

Attorney Pete Heaven is also an ACREL Fellow.

At Spencer Fane, David helps a diverse network of clients in the governmental, business, health care, and hospitality industries successfully handle the full range of legal needs related to successful real estate transactions, ensuring projects stay on time and on budget. He has earned numerous distinctions, such as multiple Best Lawyers in America "Lawyer of the Year" recognitions and Construction Lawyers Society Fellowship.
