David Miller Talks Restaurant Bankruptcy on 9News

Spencer Fane attorney David Miller provided insight on a TV news story for NBC affiliate 9News covering an iconic Colorado restaurant that recently filed for bankruptcy, Casa Bonita.

David outlines the impact resulting from the restaurant filing for bankruptcy relief, including the expenses that continue to pile up even though the business is currently closed.

He emphasized that this is a tough situation due to the lack of profit. "You can imagine having to shoulder that burden...is very difficult for individuals, small businesses, even larger businesses," David explained.

At Spencer Fane, David works closely with individuals and companies, providing guidance and counsel in all aspects of bankruptcy law and commercial litigation. All clients, both debtors and creditors, benefit from his extensive knowledge and experience in bankruptcy and related matters.
