Spencer Fane Team Presents at 2024 Fall IP Institute, a Firm-Sponsored CLE Event

Spencer Fane attorney Loren Mulraine presented at the 2024 Fall IP Institute on September 19. DJ Healey will also present on September 21. The firm is sponsoring this event, which is hosted by the University of Houston Law Center's Institute for Intellectual Property & Information Law and the Houston Intellectual Property Law Association.

Entering its 40th year, this three-day continuing legal education (CLE) event benefits hundreds of intellectual property professionals from across Texas and nationwide. Loren led the program's Copyright Update on Thursday. DJ – a member of the conference faculty and the Program Selection Committee – will present the Saturday ethics CLE, Venue Considerations for IP and Licenses.

At the firm, Loren's understanding of the creative elements of the entertainment and media industries merges with his extensive legal skills to protect his clients' intellectual property, build their business enterprises, and advocate for social justice. He has represented Grammy, Dove, and Stellar award winners; gold-, platinum-, and multiplatinum-selling artists; and professionals in the music, media, film/TV, theater, and sports industries. Loren is also a professor and director of Music and Entertainment Law Studies at Belmont University College of Law.

DJ harnesses over 30 years of experience in planning and executing enforcement strategies and counterstrategies in federal and state courts, the ITC, the FTC, European courts, and the European Commission. Recognized by the industry as one of the preeminent intellectual property litigators in the United States, DJ helps plaintiffs enforce their patents, protect their trade secrets, defend their copyrights, and deal with overreach through antitrust and other business torts. She is also called upon to mediate complex IP disputes based on the depth and breadth of her knowledge of the law and her deep well of common sense based on her long experience in the field.
