SpencerFane®

Dylan Reeves Reappointed to ABA Leadership Role

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Dylan Reeves' reappointment as Consumer Litigation Committee Co-Chair for the American Bar Association (ABA) Litigation Section.

Dylan will serve in this leadership role for the 2026–2027 bar year, helping the Committee advance its goals within one of the Section's most active subject matter groups. As a preeminent consumer litigation resource and lawyer network, the group provides timely, useful content and development opportunities for its members.

At Spencer Fane, Dylan provides experienced, confident, and steady leadership through the most difficult legal problems, allowing clients to report to their stakeholders that they are aggressively defending their cases with an attorney familiar with their court and the nuances of their industry. He represents companies in a broad range of business, corporate, and commercial litigation matters spanning product liability, shareholder disputes, business divorces, heavy equipment, toxic torts, class actions, multidistrict litigation, and bankruptcy.

Learn more about the ABA Consumer Litigation Committee here.