

Ellen E. Stewart Explores Health Care Provider Regulations and Legal Issues at HFMA 2022 Eastern Regional Conference

Spencer Fane attorney Ellen E. Stewart served as a featured speaker for the HFMA 2022 Eastern Regional Conference, an event hosted by the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA)'s North Carolina Chapter, on November 15 in Asheville, North Carolina.

During her presentation — Lions, Tigers and Bears, OH MY! And That's Just the Beginning — Ellen joined Parker Hudson's Tracy Field for a discussion on regulatory changes placed upon the provider community in recent years. They covered legal issues such as surprise billing, transparency, consumer protection, HIPAA, and more.

The HFMA is a professional organization for individuals involved in financial, operation, and strategic management of healthcare delivery. As part of its North Carolina Chapter's vision "to be an indispensable professional resource for healthcare financial managers," it hosted the Conference as an educational and networking opportunity for attendees. The Conference took place from November 13-16 at the historic Omni Grove Park Inn.

At Spencer Fane, Ellen helps health care clients successfully navigate myriad legal issues and regulations so they can effectively deliver patient care while still meeting their business goals. Whether she is assisting clients in mergers and acquisitions, negotiating contracts, or developing corporate compliance programs, Ellen dedicates herself to providing her clients with the highest level of transactional counsel and litigation advocacy.
