

Ellen E. Stewart Featured in Law Week Colorado on the Governors Public Health Alliance

Spencer Fane attorney Ellen E. Stewart was recently quoted in the article New Health Alliance Mirrors Colorado's Use of Compacts, published by Law Week Colorado.

In the article, Ellen remarks on how interstate compacts help states coordinate health care across borders. She highlights that these agreements make it easier for providers to respond where they are most needed and that the compacts have proven effective in past public health challenges.

"The compacts were tested in the COVID-19 pandemic and appeared to work well to provide needed resources," Ellen said. "Examples include healthcare providers traveling from states that were not experiencing a high number of cases to those states that needed additional assistance."

At the firm, Ellen helps health care clients successfully navigate myriad legal issues and regulations so they can effectively deliver patient care while still meeting their business goals. Whether she is assisting clients in mergers and acquisitions, negotiating contracts, or developing corporate compliance programs, Ellen's dedication provides her clients with the highest level of transactional counsel and litigation advocacy.
