SpencerFane®

Ellsie Lucero Earns HNBA Top Lawyers Under 40 Recognition

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Ellsie Lucero as a recipient of the 2026 Hispanic National Bar Association (HNBA) Top Lawyers Under 40 Awards.

This year, Ellsie is one of only 28 attorneys in the nation to receive this distinction in recognition of her professional achievement, innovation, service mindset, and burgeoning leadership in the industry. HNBA National President Rosevelie Márquez Morales remarked that the honorees "shine a light on the collective power of a new generation stepping forward with purpose, conviction, and a deep commitment to lifting our community and our profession higher."

Ellsie and her fellow honorees will be formally celebrated at the HNBA Corporate Counsel Conference, held in Las Vegas on March 11-13.

At Spencer Fane, Ellsie represents clients in a variety of commercial litigation matters with a focus on contract disputes, real estate disputes, and business torts. Ellsie also works on all facets of water law, including regulatory hearings and district court and appellate litigation.

Read the full list of HNBA Top Lawyers Under 40 honorees here.