Eric Johnson Elected Kansas City Bankruptcy Bar Association President

Spencer Fane is proud to announce attorney Eric Johnson as president of the Kansas City Bankruptcy Bar Association (KCBBA).

In his second time in the role, Eric plays a pivotal part in the organization's mission to promote civility, cooperation, and professionalism with the Kansas City Metropolitan bankruptcy bar through educational and networking events. As an example, Eric was a panelist for the KCBBA presentation, First Day Motions, in November 2025.

At Spencer Fane, Eric is a key member of the Banking and Financial Services and Bankruptcy, Restructuring, and Creditors' Rights practice groups. Over the course of his 20-plus-year career, he has represented almost every constituency in insolvency proceedings including trustees, receivers, secured lenders, debtors in possession, buyers of distressed assets, creditors' committees, trade creditors, landlords, and defendants in insolvency related litigation.
