

Experienced Litigator Joins Spencer Fane, Bolsters South Carolina Office

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to announce Megan M. Early-Soppa joined the firm's Greenville, South Carolina, office as an of counsel attorney in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group.

Megan advocates for clients in a variety of tort and commercial litigation matters resulting in a track record of favorable outcomes and several renowned decisions. She offers valuable insight and adaptable, quick-witted solutions gained from experience litigating on both sides of the aisle across a range of legal venues. Megan's arguments speak intuitively to both judges and juries as she develops creative discovery and diligently navigates case intricacies.

"Megan's tenacity and strong reputation in the courtroom are a perfect match for the firm's renowned litigation department, which capitalizes on client-centric advocacy and exceptional work ethic," said Kurt M. Rozelsky, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Greenville. "She possesses all of the core attributes which make an attorney successful and will undoubtedly have a significant impact on expanding and strengthening our litigation profile in South Carolina and Georgia."

Megan is notably bilingual, completing her undergraduate degree in intercultural studies for business in Spanish at Wofford College before earning her Juris Doctor cum laude at Southern University Law Center. Beyond her practice, she is an active member of several national and regional legal societies, including three state bar associations, and holds leadership positions within multiple charitable organizations.
