

Five Spencer Fane Attorneys Named to Utah Legal Elite

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce five of its attorneys have been selected to the 2025 Utah Legal Elite by Utah Business magazine.

This honor recognizes 100 leading lawyers in Utah for their exceptional legal knowledge, ethical standards, professional accomplishments, and profound impact on their respective fields and communities.

Legal Elite honorees are peer-selected via a statewide nomination process in which members of the Utah Bar are invited to cast a single ballot for Utah attorneys they hold in the highest regard. Given that nominators cannot vote for themselves, the annual Legal Elite spotlights lawyers ranging from seasoned veterans to rising stars who have been observed and recommended by their industry colleagues.

In addition to receiving formal recognition on June 17, this year's Legal Elite were highlighted in a special Utah Business feature. The firm's 2025 honorees, alongside the quote from the feature, include:

- Keith Call – Litigation, General Commercial
 - “Keith’s professionalism and ethics come uncompromisingly first, which translates exceptionally well to the courtroom.”
- Dani Cepernich – Environmental & Natural Resources
 - “Dani has consistent top-notch writing, research and negotiation. She improves all those around her.”
- Colby Clark – Business, Corporate & Transactional
 - “Colby’s legal work is top notch, and he makes his clients his highest priority.”
- Jason Hawkins – Litigation, General Commercial
 - “Jason is a skilled litigator who provides practical guidance when navigating disputes.”

- Rodney Parker – Litigation, General Commercial
 - “Rodney is very knowledgeable. He is one of the best legal writers.”

View the full 2025 Legal Elite list here.