

SpencerFane®

Former Armor Officer Joins Spencer Fane Commercial Litigation Team in Nashville

Spencer Fane LLP is pleased to welcome Casey R. Malloy to the firm's Nashville office as an associate in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice group.

Casey represents clients in commercial litigation matters in state courts, federal courts, and arbitration, with litigation experience spanning contract disputes, construction, government investigations, health care, and intellectual property.

"We are thrilled to welcome Casey to our strong and highly successful commercial litigation team, where he will undoubtedly continue to develop and hone his legal skills in and out of the courtroom," said Sam Jackson, Office Managing Partner for Spencer Fane in Nashville. "As our firm reinforces a culture rooted in both exceptional client and community service, we know Casey will help support this important work on all fronts."

A Kentucky native, Casey obtained degrees in Business Administration and Spanish magna cum laude from the University of Louisville.

Prior to earning his Juris Doctor at Vanderbilt Law School, Casey served in the U.S. Army as an Armor Officer, where he led a scout platoon on NATO training exercises in Eastern Europe and was the Distinguished Honor Graduate of the Army Reconnaissance Course. He has worked pro bono on behalf of servicemembers and veterans and, in 2022, notably earned the American Bar Association Military Pro Bono Project Outstanding Services Award.