Gerry Greiman Honored with ICON Award from Missouri Lawyers Media

Spencer Fane is proud to announce Gerry Greiman has been honored with the Missouri Lawyers Media ICON Award. Gerry was one of just 25 attorneys honored at an awards ceremony on June 15.

The ICON award recognizes distinguished attorneys for their exemplary careers and long-standing commitment to the Missouri legal community and beyond the field of law.

In his award profile with Missouri Lawyers Media, Gerry shared his experience presenting an oral argument before the U.S. Supreme Court.

“For me, it was the most fun a lawyer could have. It was an interesting First Amendment case. I felt I was on the right side of it.”

Gerry concentrates his practice in areas of business disputes, trust and estate disputes, and other complex civil litigation. He has handled and won a broad range of cases in various federal and state courts around the country, including the U.S. Supreme Court. Gerry is skilled and experienced at handling matters at both the trial and appellate levels, and in the alternative dispute resolution context.
