

SpencerFane®

Ginger Sotelo Leads CREW Silicon Valley Networking Workshop

Spencer Fane attorney Ginger Sotelo led the Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Silicon Valley workshop, The Art of Working the Room, on August 12 in San Jose.

The interactive session provided attendees with tools and strategies to confidently navigate any networking event and turn every interaction into a valuable connection. Such workshops are among the many professional development and business opportunities CREW Silicon Valley provides to over 140 members such as Ginger, who is also a past-president of the organization.

At Spencer Fane, Ginger assists financial institutions and factoring companies in structuring their operations and transactions in a manner that enables them to run efficiently, overcome challenges, and succeed in their endeavors. She also harnesses more than 15 years of extensive experience to counsel clients concerning California broker licensing laws, compliance, contract negotiations, workouts, secured party collections, and other litigation matters.

Learn more about CREW Silicon Valley here.