

SpencerFane®

Hannah Lee to Moderate Panel at Firm-Sponsored LIWOCA Conference

Once again, Spencer Fane is pleased to announce its sponsorship of the annual Leadership Institute for Women of Color Attorneys (LIWOCA) CLE Conference. Attorney Hannah Lee will moderate a panel at the March 25-27 event in Atlanta.

This year's program – Bold Steps, New Horizons – focuses on practical strategies, skills, and insights in areas such as AI, RICO, career growth, wellness, financial planning, and brand development. Hannah's panel, What Chapter Are You In?, will feature both the early-career and seasoned wisdom of Jasmine Williams (Peace in Movement), Bentina Chisolm Terry (Southern Linc & Southern Telecom, Inc.), and Kaylan Meaza (Alston & Bird LLP) The session will discuss how to navigate transitions, make pivotal decisions, and embrace the present part of everyone's unique story.

At Spencer Fane, Hannah defends clients in product liability, warranty, premises liability, toxic tort, and construction defect matters. From high-profile catastrophic injury cases to large-scale warranty matters, she brings focused experience within the automotive, consumer, and chemical product industries to achieve favorable outcomes for her clients.

Learn more about the LIWOCA Conference here.