Helen Holden Discusses New Mexico Employment Law for National Business Institute Seminar

Spencer Fane attorney Helen Holden was a featured speaker for the National Business Institute (NBI)'s online New Mexico Employment Law 2023 seminar on December 7.

Joined by fellow industry thought leaders Trent Howell and Quentin Smith, Helen guided attendees through best practices in state employment law. She focused on hiring and firing employees and wage and hour law.

NBI is dedicated to providing practical, skill-based CLE seminars and online CLE courses. The organization enhances professional knowledge through thousands of yearly continuing education programs that run the full gamut of training formats.

At Spencer Fane, Helen helps businesses understand how successfully navigating the alphabet soup of federal and state employment laws can positively impact company culture. Helen has more than 20 years of experience focusing on management-side employment law. Her clients include companies in diverse industry sectors, such as construction, real estate, manufacturing, technology, health care, distribution, and the retail and service sectors.
