Helen Holden Named a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Helen Holden has been elected a Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers (CLEL) in recognition of her profound impact on the legal industry.

The CLEL is a nonprofit professional association honoring the leading lawyers nationwide in the practice of labor and employment law. Fellows earn this distinction by promoting achievement, advancement, and excellence in the practice by setting high standards, sharing their wealth of knowledge and experience, and serving as a resource to the community at large. Helen joins retired Spencer Fane partners Michael Delaney, Dave Wing, and Sue Willman as Fellows in the College. Helen will be formally inducted along with the other 2025 inductees at the Annual Induction Dinner on November 15 at the Denver Art Museum in Denver, Colorado.

At Spencer Fane, Helen helps businesses successfully navigate federal and state employment laws to positively impact company culture. Her diverse industry experience and focus on management-side employment law spans construction, real estate, manufacturing, technology, health care, distribution, and the retail and service sectors.
