SpencerFane®

Helen Holden Named Chair of the DRI Employment and Labor Law Committee

Spencer Fane is pleased to announce attorney Helen Holden's appointment as Chair of the DRI Employment and Labor Law Committee. She enters this new leadership role after serving as the Committee's Vice Chair since 2022.

DRI is the largest international membership organization of attorneys defending the interests of business and individuals in civil litigation. Through its membership, resources, and advocacy, DRI seeks to enhance the skills, effectiveness, and professionalism of defense attorneys while improving the justice system.

In her new role, Helen will play a vital part in DRI's continued growth and prominence, advancing the organization's core values of education, justice, balance, economics, professionalism, and diversity. As head of one of DRI's most active committees, she will help provide education, shared expertise, professional development, and networking opportunities to labor and employment members that include outside counsel, in-house counsel, human resource professionals, and liability insurance claims professionals.

At Spencer Fane, Helen helps businesses successfully navigate federal and state employment laws to positively impact company culture. Her diverse industry experience and focus on management-side employment law spans construction, real estate, manufacturing, technology, health care, distribution, and the retail and service sectors.

Learn more about DRI here.