Helen Holden Talks Arizona Employment Law on FDCC Podcast

Spencer Fane attorney Helen Holden was the featured guest on the July 12 episode of FedWorks, a Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC) podcast.

In her discussion with host Robert Lockwood, Helen provided advice to employers newly entering the Phoenix area, discussed state laws around medical marijuana and paid sick leave, noted other unique features of employment law in Arizona.

FedWorks is an employment law-focused podcast that discusses timely, educational topics for employers looking to navigate the shifting needs and rules of the workplace. FedWorks is just one of the podcasts in the FDCC's FedSpeaks series, which harnesses the weekly insights of thought leaders from the legal, insurance, and corporate worlds.

At Spencer Fane, Helen helps businesses understand how successfully navigating the alphabet soup of federal and state employment laws can positively impact company culture. Helen brings over 20 years of experience to her focus on management-side employment law, which is evident in the practical advice and training she provides to management on human resource issues.
