

SpencerFane®

International Women's Day Celebration Featuring Kathrine Switzer

Creating Success in a Difficult Environment

The Spencer Fane Women ADVOCATE group is hosting an event on International Women's Day featuring keynote speaker, Kathrine Switzer. This is an opportunity to celebrate women's achievements across the globe and learn Kathrine's story.

Kathrine was the first woman to officially register, run, and finish the Boston Marathon. She overcame obstacles and went on to promote the rights of women to run the marathon in Boston, the Olympic Games, and elsewhere. During this presentation, she will discuss how to create success in a difficult environment.

Date/Time: March 8, 2021 | 3:00-4:00pm CT

Platform: Virtual

Cost: Free

For more information about the firm's Women ADVOCATE group, please click here.